JUDGMENT (Per Sri B.Prakash Rao, J)

Heard both sides and at their request, the main appeal itself is taken up for disposal.

This appeal is filed against the interim orders granted by the learned single Judge. However, without filing any application for vacating the same along with the counter affidavit, the appellants have straight away filed this appeal. In the absence of steps being taken, it is not open for the appellants to seek any modification with regard thereto.

In view of the above, the writ appeal is dismissed. No costs.
